

FAQ | Stock Images by Lindsay Teague Moreno | v1.0 11/2017

Q: What am I allowed to do with the images?

You can use these images in lots of ways!

Feel free to:

- Crop the image.
- Overlay the image with text or products.
- Filter the image to match your brand.
- Convert the image to black and white.

These images can be shared on social media to promote yourself, your brand, and your business.

Q: What am I not allowed to do with the images?

Please note this is a standard license, not commercial.

You are not allowed to:

- Resell the images for profit in part or whole.
- Alter the images by cutting and pasting any props.
- Use the images for anything considered offensive, illegal, or pornographic.
- Use the images to promote or sell other stock photography products, services, resources, courses, whether for free or paid.

Q: Do I have to credit your images?

No, credit isn't necessary, but I always appreciate a shout-out! I love to see how you're using the images so don't forget to use #ltmstock on your post!

Q: Do I need Photoshop to use your images?

Nope! You don't need any complicated software unless you want to use it. You can use free programs online like CANVA, or apps on your phone.
